

Selected iPad Apps for Children and Adults with Autism

iPrompts – Created by the parents of a boy with Autism and a certified Speech-Language Pathologist, the app provides several useful visual prompting tools (no audio prompts or voice output) to help impaired individuals transition from one activity to the next, understand upcoming events, make choices, and focus on the task at hand.

www.itunes.apple.com

StepStones - An innovative activity that illustrates a series of steps of specific activities and allows any user to organize a set of information in a checklist list format. Helps individuals with autism, special needs and/or learning challenges to understand and manage the daily events. www.appolicious.com

Proloquo2go - With natural sounding text-to-speech voices, close to 8000 up-to-date symbols, powerful automatic conjugations, a large default vocabulary, full expandability and extreme ease of use, Proloquo2go is a full-featured communication solution for people who have difficulty speaking, including children and adults with special needs.

www.proloquo2go.com/

Expressionist - Designed to help users to model expressions. The facial gestures of the cartoon character is carefully designed in a way that any visual learner (such as those on the autism spectrum) would have no issue understanding or modeling it. Contains over 120 commonly used expressions and over 1000 commonly used nouns.

www.itunes.apple.com

iConverse – An educational tool designed for young children and individuals with communicative disabilities, special needs and also toddler-aged children who have yet to master language. Displays 6 different icons that represent a person's most basic needs. Allows parents, teachers, and the general public to understand the basic wants and needs of individuals who are unable to verbally communicate. www.converseapp.com iCommunicate – Allows the user to create pictures, flashcards, storyboards, routines, and visual schedules. Includes over 100 pictures (first 5 have audio). Pictures from a camera can be added as well as online images. Custom audio can be recorded in any language. Also converts any words with Text to Speech that do not have custom audio recorded.

www.itunes.apple.com

Selected iPad Apps for Children and Adults with Autism

Behavior Tracker Pro – Allows behavioral therapists, aids, teachers or parents to track behaviors and graph them. Specifically designed to support the behavioral treatment plans for children with autism. www.behaviortrackerpro.com

Behavior Assessment Pro – A practical application that identifies factors related to problem behaviors and an ideal resource to use for children with autism. This application was designed by a Board Certified Behavior Analyst for use by parents, teachers, therapists, behavior analysts, special educators or anyone interested in supporting individuals with problem behaviors. www.itunes.apple.com iMean – Turns the entire iPad screen into a large-button keyboard, with text display and word prediction. Enables people with speech challenges to communicate their needs and ideas directly, distinctly and independently. www.iMean.mobi

Quickcues – A mobile social script application that helps teens and young adults on the autism spectrum to handle new situations and learn new skills. Easy to use in everyday situations and provides helps with conversations at school or work, listening, and talking on the phone. Also contains tips on reading body language and finding shared interests with others. www.itunes.apple.com

Grace – A non-speaking, simple picture exchange system developed for people with autism to communicate their needs independently. Users can select pictures to form semantic sentences which they can then share by pointing to the images. www.itunes.apple.com

TouchChat HD– A full featured communication solution for individuals who have difficulty using their natural voice. Designed for individuals with autism, Down Syndrome, apraxia and other conditions that affect a person's ability to use natural speech. Words, phrases and messages are spoken with a built-in voice synthesizer or by playing a recorded message. www.itunes.apple.com